

As divindades

Enquanto no bulfício mercantil de Olisipo, os libertos invocavam Cíbele, Esculápio ou Ísis, aqui, no campo, mais em contacto com a Terra-Mãe, as divindades são locais, mais íntimas: Triborunnis, Aracus, Aratoniceus, uma Dea de muito louvar...

The divinities

While in the cosmopolitan hustle and bustle of Olisipo the freedmen invoked foreign gods such as Cybele, Esculapius or Isis, here in the countryside, in close contact with Mother-Earth the divinities were of local origin. They were more familiar and personal: Triborunnis, Aracus, Aratoniceus, a much lauded Mother-Goddess...
